

Orange County 4th Annual Juneteenth Celebration

The Long Road to Freedom

June 19, 2010, 12 – 5:30 pm
Hargraves Community Center

JUNETEENTH commemorates the day the last slaves in America learned they were free.

We invite you to become a patron of this very special event by sponsoring an ad in the souvenir booklet and/or renting a vendor table. Distributed free of charge, the program guide will contain the day’s schedule, explain the history and significance of Juneteenth, highlight the contributions of African Americans to our area, and offer a forum to those who support the continued fight for freedom. Purchasing an ad in the program or setting up a vendor table display are excellent ways to showcase your candidate, business, church, cause, or organization to a diverse group of hundreds of men, women, and children from a cross-section of our community.

Please join us at Hargraves Recreation Center, 216 N. Roberson St., Chapel Hill, on Saturday, June 19, 2010 from 12:00 – 5:00 p.m. Juneteenth activities include speeches by public officials, oration on Juneteenth’s history, food, vendor displays, health booths, a basketball tournament, entertainment, games, the incredibly moving Harambee Circle, and an opportunity for every public official and every candidate on this fall’s ballot who attends the opening ceremony to offer a word of greeting.

Proceeds will benefit Pine Knolls Community Center programming, including affordable housing, enrichment for school children, and the effort to bring a Boys and Girls Club to Chapel Hill.

Sponsored by a coalition of community organizations, this year’s event is dedicated to Dr. Ted Parrish, who was severely injured in a recent fall from a ladder. Dr. Parrish, an Associate Professor in the Department of Health Education at North Carolina Central University, is a long-time community activist. Just the tip of the iceberg of his involvements includes: immediate past president of Pine Knolls Community Center, 16 years on the Chapel Hill-Carrboro School Board, instrumental in bringing a Juneteenth commemoration to Chapel Hill, and the driving force behind the soon-to-be-realized quest to bring a Boys and Girls Club to our area.

Please email ad text and specifications as Word attachment and/or jpeg to pineknollcenter@aol.com by 6 pm on Friday, June 11, 2010. The final booklet will be B & W in print but in color on our website.

Full Page	$100	½ Page	$50	¼ Page	$25	Business Card	$10	Vendor Table	$25
-----------	-------	--------	------	--------	------	---------------	------	--------------	------

Donations of food, drinks, paper goods, door prizes, in-kind donations, and of course cash are gratefully accepted and will be tax deductible as allowed by law. For more information or to rent a vendor table visit pineknollslearningcenter.org or contact: Stephanie Perry at 919-358-7345, stephberry@aol.com. Please join us – individuals, businesses, candidates and organizations – in honoring Dr. Ted Parrish and in commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States.

Pines Community Center, Inc.

Stephanie Perry, President

pineknollslearningcenter.org

107 Johnson St. Chapel Hill, NC 27516

919-240-5801 (Center) 919-358-7345 (President)

a 501 (C)3 Charitable Organization. Donations are deductible to the extent allowed by law.